November 18, 2011 to January 1, 2012

Become a part of this popular seasonal event situated along the Detroit River in the beautiful Navy Yard Park & Toddy Jones Park.

Over 100 displays will dazzle your senses and warm your heart!

Amazing techno symphony of lights and the many Holiday Programs will capture your Community Spirit and Pride!

Our Mission Statement

“River Lights Winter Festival is a non denominational program that promotes community civic pride and inclusiveness of local business and goodwill organizations in the downtown core, along the riverfront, and in heritage sites. This seasonal event provides innovative, fun activities and displays which promote enjoyment, cultural, artistic and economic benefits to youth, seniors, visitors, and the community at large.”
